Day Trip from Austin "A Touch of Hollandale"

- 9:00 AM Hollandale - our step-on guide will share with you background and information about the area.
- 9:30 AM Heritage Huis
Here you will be greeted by guides in Dutch costume and visit the one room museum of Hollandale and see their history. A small Dutch Windmill in working condition is near the door for all to see.
- Oma's Gift Shop
There are many Dutch items for sale or you may want to purchase a Dutch treat, Ollien Ballen (donut hole with raisins, currants, apples, and citron).
- The Seed Room
Just across the street you will visit the Seed Room where you can view Becky putting together a beautiful quilt on a quilting machine.
- 11:00 AM Marketplace
You will be given a tour of the facility that sorts the potatoes and onions. Your guide will explain how it all works!
- 11:30 AM Noon Break
Have a special Dutch meal consisting of Hutspjut: steamed potatoes, carrots, and onions mashed together with bacon (all locally grown), Dutch meat balls, tossed salad & almond cookie cake.
- 1:00 PM R & M Farm
- 2:00 PM Greibrook's Mini History Farm
- 3:30 PM Hotel Check In
- 5:30 PM Dinner
- 6:30 PM Entertainment
